

Giving Up a Pet – Connecticut

Categories : Wildlife and Animals

If you are thinking about giving up your pet, call the Connecticut Humane Society. The mission of the Humane Society is to find homes for pets whose owner/s can no longer care for them. All pets surrendered will be subject to a behavior evaluation before being accepted. Connecticut Humane Society reserves the right to accept or refuse any animal presented for surrender. A set donation fee is requested to drop off each pet. Please do not abandon your pet by letting it go free on the streets!

For information on how to surrender your pet go to: <https://cthumane.org/pet-rehoming/>

To Find Providers in Connecticut's Community Resources Database:

Search by service name: Animal Adoption

SOURCE: Connecticut Humane Society

PREPARED BY: 211/mm

CONTENT LAST REVIEWED: May2021