

How to Find Sign Language Instruction Classes in Connecticut

Categories : Education

Instruction classes for people who want to learn sign language can be found in various public community colleges and universities and town adult education departments in Connecticut. Call your local college admissions or registration office or town adult education department to ask if they offer sign language instruction classes.

Sign language classes can also be found through a few community based agencies that provide services for the deaf and hearing-impaired. They include:

- American School for the Deaf (ASD) – Hartford (www.asd-1817.org/)
- Disabilities Network of Eastern Connecticut (www.dnec.org/)
- LifeBridge Community Services (FSW) – Bridgeport (www.lifebridgect.org)

TO FIND PROVIDERS IN CONNECTICUT'S COMMUNITY RESOURCES DATABASE:

Search by service name: Sign Language Instruction

SOURCES: 2-1-1 Database; American School for the Deaf website; Disabilities Network of Eastern Connecticut; LifeBridge Community Services

PREPARED BY: 211/nl

CONTENT LAST REVIEWED: December2021