

Licensed Practical Nursing Programs (LPN) - Connecticut

Categories : Education

Admission Requirements

To gain entrance into an LPN program, students should make sure to follow their school of choice's admission requirements. While these can vary, they usually consist of the following:

- Must be 18 or older
- High school diploma or GED
- Minimum GPA of 2.5
- Completion of any prerequisite courses
- Passing the TEAS (Test of Essential Academic Skills)[\[1\]](#)

How to Find LPN Training Programs

- The Connecticut Department of Public Health, Department of Practitioner Licensing lists State Approved Practical Nurse Programs on their website:
(<https://portal.ct.gov/DPH/Public-Health-Hearing-Office/Board-of-Examiners-for-Nursing/Approved-Practical-Nurse-Education-Programs>)
For further information, call DPH at 860-509-7603.

Cost of Training:

- Costs vary for the LPN training offered by the private training schools. Financial aid is available.

SOURCES: Connecticut State Department of Public Health; Practicalnursing.org, Porterchester.edu
PREPARED BY: 211/nl
CONTENT LAST REVIEWED: November2021