Tropical Storm Information & Resources

In addition to our primary role connecting Connecticut residents to the help they need, 2-1-1 is involved in local disaster planning, response and recovery. 2-1-1 is a simple, easy-to-call number to access community services 24 hours-a-day, seven days-a-week. The need for such services often increases dramatically during and following emergency situations and disasters.

Below are the links to state and federal disaster information & resources available to Connecticut residents regarding tropical storm's and other emergency events. We will add and/or delete information as we receive updates to our website.

State & Federal Disaster Emergency Service Resources:

- Emergency Services and Public Protection \(DESPP\)
- Department of Public Health \(CTDPH\)
- Federal Emergency Management Agency \(FEMA\)
- CT Department of Insurance
- American Red Cross of Connecticut
- The “CT Prepares” app that can be downloaded for free from the iTunes Apple Store for Apple devices and Google Play for Android devices by searching the keyword “CT Prepares.”
- CT Alert ENS, (www.ctalert.gov) a program of Department of Emergency Services & Public Safety, allows state and local officials to provide critical information to residents during emergencies, including dangerous situations.

To find out if your town participates in the CT Alert ENS program, go to the website which will direct you to the Citizen Sign-up Page (from the home page click on “Towns that Participate” at the top left of the page and follow the instructions.
